

INSTITUTIONAL READ AND PUBLISH AGREEMENT

Explanatory note for Customer

(This note does not form part of the legally binding agreement)

The following is a single framework agreement to cover purchase models for access to the OUP journals and online products, and the publishing of open access articles, that are offered under this agreement.

With the benefit of this framework agreement, you may efficiently make further purchases of our journals and online products which purchases will automatically be governed by the terms of this agreement, without having to renew the agreement annually and without the need to maintain in a Schedule to the agreement a regularly updated list of publications with their start and end dates (although we can do this if it is important to you).

To enable this flexibility, the agreement contains terms that address the various available purchase models (i.e. journals subscriptions, online product subscriptions and perpetual access publications). Certain clauses may not be relevant to the particular purchases you make under this agreement. The applicability of such clauses will be noted in the clause itself, and Clause 1.6 of the Terms and Conditions also makes clear that the terms in each Annex (which, respectively, deal with particular purchase models) apply only in relation to the relevant purchase model if it is being purchased.

If you have any queries about the scope of the agreement, please contact salesagreements@oup.com.

- 3.3. The Customer shall maintain appropriate and reasonable policies, procedures and technical and organizational measures to ensure that the Publications and Password(s) are at all times used within the scope of the rights granted to the Customer and its Authorised Users in this Agreement. In particular the Customer shall notify all Authorised Users that the Publications are protected by copyright and the Authorised Users' access to and use of the Publications is subject to the restrictions and obligations contained in this Agreement.
- 3.4. The Customer shall notify Publisher immediately upon becoming aware of any of the following: (a) any loss, theft, or unauthorised use of any Password(s) by email to the following address: privacy@oup.com; (b) any breach of the Secure Network that could compromise the security or integrity of the Publications or Password(s) by email to the following address: privacy@oup.com; or (c) any breach by an Authorised User of the terms of this Agreement by email to the following address: salesagreements@oup.com and by formal notice in writing to the Group Legal Director.
- 3.5. The obligations in this Clause 3 are designed to protect the security and authorised use of the Publications. The Publisher is reliant on the Customer fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement in order to accomplish this goal and, accordingly, upon the Publisher's request, the Customer shall terminate access to the Publications by any Authorised User whose actions or omissions contravene the terms of this Agreement.
- 3.6. The Publisher reserves the right to suspend the Customer's access to the Publications or any portion thereof and/or the OA Account (in addition to any other available remedies) if:

The Publisher shall use reasonable efforts to ensure that such usage reports are compliant with the most recent release of the COUNTER Code of Practice for Journals and Databases (available at <https://cop5.projectcounter.org/en/5.1.0.1/index.html>). The Customer acknowledges that the Publisher will not be able to provide accurate usage reports if the Customer stores the Publication(s) on any cache or proxy server, or accesses the Publications through an agent gateway.

5. PAYMENTS BY THE CUSTOMER

- 5.1. In consideration of the access granted by Publisher under this Agreement, the Customer shall pay the Charges due to Publisher for each Publication within 30 days of receipt of an appropriate invoice. For Journals, the Publisher will invoice the Customer using separate invoices: one invoice relating to access to the Journals (i.e. 'read'); and one or more invoice(s) relating to publication of OA Articles (i.e. 'publish'). The Publisher's allocation of the Charges between 'read' and 'publish' is set out in Schedule A and is based on the Customer's subscription spend and estimated article publishing output. Such allocation may be subject to rounding up variations as may be necessary due to the functionality of the Publisher's management system. If the Customer fails to pay the Charges the Publisher may suspend access to any or all Publications or any portion thereof and/or the OA Account or may terminate this Agreement.
- 5.2. If the Customer is purchasing Publications through a Subscription Agent, the Customer will pay the Charges for those Publications to the Subscription Agent. If the Subscription Agent fails to pay such sums to the Publisher, the Publisher may suspend access to any or all Publications or any portion thereof and/or OA Account or may terminate this Agreement without liability to the Customer, and the Customer further agrees that its sole remedy in such circumstances would be against the Subscription Agent and not the Publisher. The Publisher's rights specified in this Clause are in addition to any rights and remedies that may be available in law or equity.
- 5.3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Publisher will not be obliged to grant access to a Publication, or continue to grant such access to the Customer, until the Charges or Renewal Fees for that period have been received by the Publisher.
- 5.4. The Charges and (for Subscription Publications) any Renewal Fees may be increased to reflect, without limitation and as applicable, changes to the Publications, and/or the potential number of Authorised Users.
- 5.5. Unless expressly stated to the contrary in this Agreement, all amounts referred to in this Agreement will be interpreted as being amounts exclusive of value added tax, goods and services tax and any similar sales or excise tax ("Sales Tax"). Any Sales Tax payable in relation to any such amounts shall be added at the prevailing rate, as applicable, and paid by Customer following delivery of a valid invoice from Publisher.

- 5.6. The Customer shall pay all amounts due to the Publisher without any deduction and/or withholding other than such amount (if any) it is required to deduct and/or withhold by law and/or upon other direction of any tax authority. In the event that the Customer is required to make such deduction and/or withholding, the Customer shall formally notify Publisher before any such deduction and/or withholding is made and paid to the authority concerned and, further, shall, at the written request of the Publisher, assist the Publisher to claim exemption or preferential rate therefrom under any double taxation and/or similar agreement and/or convention from time to time in force and shall provide the Publisher at the time of payment with such evidence as the Customer may possess and as may be reasonably required by the Publisher as to the deduction and payment of the tax and/or of the sums withheld.

6. ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND PROTECTION OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

- 6.1. The Customer acknowledges that, as between the Publisher and the Customer, all copyrights, patent rights, trademarks, services marks, database rights, trade secrets and other intellectual property rights relating to the Publications, and the Publisher's trademarks OXFORD, and OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS (collectively the "Publisher Intellectual Property"), are owned or controlled by Publisher, and the Customer further acknowledges that this Agreement does not convey to the Customer any right, title, or interest therein except for the right to access and use, and permit its Authorised Users to access and use, the Publications in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 6.2. The Customer acknowledges that neither it nor any of its Authorised Users may create any derivative work based on the Publications without the prior written permission of the Publisher.

- 7.3. THE PUBLISHER PROVIDES ACCESS TO THE PUBLICATIONS ON AN "AS IS" BASIS. SAVE AS PROVIDED ABOVE AND TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE PUBLISHER GIVES NO WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AND MAKES NO REPRESENTATION THAT (I) THE PUBLICATIONS WILL BE OF SATISFACTORY QUALITY, SUITABLE FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR FOR ANY PARTICULAR USE UNDER SPECIFIED CONDITIONS, NOTWITHSTANDING THAT SUCH PURPOSE, USE, OR CONDITIONS MAY BE KNOWN TO PUBLISHER; OR (II) THAT THE PUBLICATIONS WILL OPERATE ERROR FREE OR WITHOUT INTERRUPTION OR THAT ANY ERRORS WILL BE CORRECTED; OR (III) THAT THE MATERIAL PUBLISHED IN THE PUBLICATIONS IS EITHER COMPLETE OR ACCURATE.
- 7.4. IN NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL THE PUBLISHER BE LIABLE TO THE CUSTOMER OR ANY THIRD PARTY FOR ANY LOSS RESULTING FROM A CAUSE OVER WHICH PUBLISHER DOES NOT HAVE DIRECT CONTROL, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO

- 7.5. THE CUSTOMER AGREES THAT THE ENTIRE LIABILITY OF THE PUBLISHER TO THE CUSTOMER AND/OR ITS AUTHORISED USERS AND/OR, IF THE CUSTOMER IS PURCHASING PUBLICATIONS THROUGH A SUBSCRIPTION AGENT, TO THE SUBSCRIPTION AGENT ARISING OUT OF ANY KIND OF LEGAL CLAIM (WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, BY STATUTE OR OTHERWISE) IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH THE USE OR INABILITY TO USE THE PUBLICATIONS WILL BE THE REFUND OF ANY SUMS ACTUALLY RECEIVED BY THE PUBLISHER UNDER THIS AGREEMENT FOR ACCESS TO THE AFFECTED PUBLICATIONS DURING THE TWELVE MONTH PERIOD IN WHICH THE CLAIM ARISES.

- 8.1. The Customer may terminate this Agreement at any time for convenience upon 30 days' formal written notice provided that, in such case, any outstanding Charges will be promptly paid and no refund of any Charges will be due.
- 8.2. If a party commits a material breach of this Agreement (and in the case of a breach capable of remedy fails to remedy the same within 30 days of a written request to do so), then the other party may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by giving the breaching party formal written notice of termination. Without limitation, a breach by the Customer of the provisions of Clauses 2.3, 3.3, 5.1, and 9.2 would constitute a material breach of this Agreement. - 9.1. Neither party shall engage in any activity, practice or conduct which would constitute, or be regarded as, an offence under any law or regulation applicable to it, consisting of the fraudulent, or otherwise unlawful, evasion of any tax.
- 9.2. Both parties represent and warrant that they shall not act, or omit to act, in such a way as to give rise to a breach by them, of any applicable law related to fraud, bribery, corruption or any related matter.

10. GENERAL

- 10.1. This Agreement is personal to the Customer and the access granted under it does not extend to its subsidiary or parent organisations (unless expressly provided herein), nor may such access or any other rights or obligations under this Agreement be assigned by the Customer without the prior written consent of the Publisher. The Publisher may assign any or all of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to an affiliate, a successor to its business or a transferee of Publisher's right to publish and distribute any Publication(s). The rights and obligations of this Agreement will bind and benefit any successors and permitted assigns of the parties. Any attempted assignment in violation of this Clause will be null and void and of no force or effect.

- 10.5. Subject to the requirements of any laws local to the parties: this Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered will constitute a duplicate original, but all the counterparts will together constitute the one agreement; and the parties agree to be bound by photocopy, scanned, facsimile, electronic or other copies, which will have the same effect for all purposes as an ink-signed original.
- 10.6. This Agreement may be amended:

This Agreement will apply (or will continue to apply), regardless of who is hosting the Journal, unless expressly stated otherwise herein.
5. - Oxford Research Encyclopaedias ("ORE")

2. For the avoidance of doubt, in the case of Version Purchased, the Charges do not include perpetual access to any updates. Should any updates be published, they may be purchased by the Customer, subject to payment of additional fees. Any updates so purchased will become part of the Publications and subject to the terms of this Agreement.
3. Where the Publisher notifies the Customer that OBO and/or ORE Publications are subject to an Update Fee, the Customer must pay an annual Update Fee in order to receive Updates for such Publications. These Update Fees may be higher than the Update Fees for the then current period.
5. Such provision will be subject to the Customer meeting the Publisher's security requirements in connection with the provision and self-hosting of such electronic copy. For the avoidance of doubt, the Publisher will not be obligated to provide the Customer with any Perpetual Access Publication or part(s) thereof that the Publisher no longer has the right to publish, grant access to or otherwise distribute in this way. This Agreement will apply

(or will continue to apply), regardless of who is hosting the Perpetual Access Publication, unless expressly stated otherwise herein.

6. Except where Publisher is merely acting as a distributor for a third party's content, if the Publisher ceases to hold the publication rights of any of the Perpetual Access Publications, and is no longer able to provide access, the Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to ensure that continuing access is provided:
 - a. by the new publisher of the relevant Publication; or
 - b. through Portico, CLOCKSS, or a similar 3rd party archive and in such case the Publisher shall provide all relevant details of the Customer to the 3rd party in order to enable access to the 3rd party archive by the Customer. Such access will be subject to Customer fulfilling the 3rd party's terms and condition for access; or

Such provision will be subject to the Customer meeting the Publisher's security requirements in connection with the provision and self-hosting of such electronic copy.

7. RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: PRE-PUBLICATION TITLES

- a. If the Publisher accepts an order for Perpetual Access Publications which includes any Pre-Publication Titles, the Publisher reserves the right, at any time prior to activating the Customer's access to such Pre-Publication Titles, to amend or cancel such order (as may be appropriate) to remove any one or more such Pre-Publication Titles from the order and the scope of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, any such amendment or cancellation under this Clause will not extend to or otherwise affect any Publications in respect of which access has already been activated.
- b. If the Publisher amends or cancels an order in accordance with Clause 7(a) of this Annex, its sole liability to the Customer will be limited to the repayment by the Publisher of any and all sums received by the Publisher under this Agreement for the Pre-Publication Titles affected by such amendment or cancellation.

ANNEX 4 – ADDITIONAL TERMS FOR PUBLICATIONS PURCHASED UNDER THE EBA MODEL

1. In this Annex 4:

“EBA Charges” the Charges paid by the Customer for access to the Publications included under the EBA Model, as indicated in Schedule C

Within six months of the end of the Subscription Period, the Customer will be entitled to place a single order to purchase perpetual access to each Publication or selected titles within that Publication, up to the amount of EBA Charges paid by the Customer in relation to that Publication. If the Customer does not place such order within six months of the end of the Subscription Period then the Publisher shall automatically select the Publications that received the most amount of usage during the Subscription Period. The price of each Publication and the individual titles within that Publication, will be the list price at the time such order is made, as provided in writing by the Publisher from time to time.
- 2.2. If the value of the order specified in Clause 2.1 above is:
- 2.2.1. less than the EBA Charges, the Customer will not be entitled to any refund of the difference;

- 2.3. Any order placed by the Customer for perpetual access to the Publications will constitute an offer by the Customer to purchase the Publications referred to therein on a perpetual access basis subject to the terms of this Agreement. The Customer is responsible for ensuring that the terms of its order are complete and accurate.
- 2.4. An order made pursuant to this Annex 4 shall only be deemed to be accepted when the Publisher issues a written or email acceptance of the order.
- 2.5. Each Publication, or selected titles within that Publication, that is included in an order that is accepted by the Publisher in accordance with this Annex 4 will convert into a Perpetual Access Publication effective from the Perpetual Access Start Date, and will be subject to the terms and conditions relating to Perpetual Access Publications in this Agreement (including those in Annex 3).
